HON. EUGENE WITHERS.

Large Crowd Hears an Excellent Speech on Current Topics.

McKinley is the Greatest Gynast of Any Age Roosevelt is Ridiculous Objections to the Republicans for Their Financial, Industrial and Military Policy.

Hon. Eugene Withers, of Danville, is a logical and forcible speaker. He demonstrated that and entertained and instructed a large audience at the John S. Barbour Club last night.

Mr. E. H. Cunningham, president of the club, introduced Mr. Withers, and promptly at 8 o'clock he began a speech.

He spoke simply but earnestly, stating that he did not intend to display any of the pyrotechnics of oratory.

Mr. Withers said he would arraign the Republican party and the Administration on three points of its policy, namely, finance, industrial and military.

The financial policy of the Republican party tends to limit the currency to the control of the national banks, and allow the banks to dictate the issuance of bonds.

The industrial policy tends to concentrate the industries of the country into the hands of a few trusts, and control the prices and the manufactured output of the factories.

The military policy of the party is that of increasing the standing army to the purpose of subjugating the Philippines. It will be easy to transform it to the purpose of putting down men dissatisfied with their wages who strike at home. On the pretence of becoming a world power they would increase the army to carry out some policy of their own invention, when we are already a world power, and don't need a standing army to prove it.

Mr. Withers illustrated and elaborated each of these topics locally and with frequent bursts of eloquence that enthused the audience. The hearers applauded vigorously despite the fact that the speech was replete with facts and figures and strictly argumentative.

Mr. Withers showed how the financial policy of this Administration and of the Republican party gave to the banks, the chief of which is the Third National of New York, the Standard Old Bank, the power to control the issue of bonds, and therefore the power to control the currency of the country.

He spoke with fine scorn of Gage, whom Carl Schurz recently exposed as condemning the gold standard bill, which he had drawn and passed, as being insufficient to protect the country. He has created a new endless chain, which is more dangerous than the one replaced.

Then Mr. Withers showed the industrial policy's danger, also the danger of increasing the standing army, which might be used to do the work of the trusts and of the bankers, in putting down the people at home.

Mr. Withers referred to President McKinley as the greatest gynast and the highest tumbler of any age. He has been on all sides of every question. He made infinite ridicule of Roosevelt as the man who appeared in public first to make a negro chairman of the Republican convention in Chicago.

The most unique paragraph of the speech, however, was the bitter sarcasm with which he characterized the thieves and sutlers, contractors and target-burgers who go about the country shouting: "Who'll haul down the flag?"

Mr. Cunningham introduced Mr. Harry L. Maynard, of Portsmouth, the candidate for Congress.

Mr. Maynard said he thanked the people of Norfolk, and particularly the 800 members of the Barbour Club, for the nomination they assisted to give him at Newport News. Then he spoke briefly of public questions.

The club was adjourned after that short speech.

VETERAN FIRE FIGHTERS

Brave Old Volunteer Firemen Here From Philadelphia.

Special Train to Norfolk From Norfolk-on-the-Roads—Quartered at the Monticello—Accompanied by a Fine Military Band—Enroute to State Firemen's Convention at Richmond.

For some time the visit of a large body of Philadelphia firemen to this city has been expected, and early yesterday afternoon they came in on a special train over the Norfolk and Atlantic Terminal railway, in charge of General Superintendent Mathes, and took dinner at the Monticello.

The men are all members of the Veteran Firemen's Association of Philadelphia, and the party is en route to Richmond to attend the State Firemen's Convention. The party includes 27 ladies, 88 veterans and the Fourth Regiment, Phila. all of Philadelphia.

The band is in charge of Mr. Martin Klingler, a leading band master of Pennsylvania.

The officers of the association present with the party are as follows: President, Wm. McDowell; Vice-President, James H. Wilson; Treasurer, Jos. H. Edwards; Secretary, Robert T. Gill; Financial Secretary, Samuel A. Kense; Chief Marshal, James C. Baxter; Engineer of the Philadelphia Fire Department and Assistant Marshals, Wm. Brown, Wm. Marshall, Richard Jennings and Louis Shiffer.

They form the largest body of experienced fire fighters that ever visited this section, and are also a handsome, intelligent lot of men, of fine physique. These men were expected in the city of Philadelphia before the "City of Brotherly Love" established its present paid fire department. About twenty-five of them are now members of the paid fire department, and are connecting link between the old time boys who "ran wild de machine," and younger paid firemen of to-day.

It was a treat to stand in the Monticello lobby last night and look at these men in their red helmet shirts, and one that called up the memory of the contests in quick runs, fast laying of hose and fierce eagerness to be the first to get a stream on the fire! The ages of the men run from 52 to 80 years.

Apt. Klingler's fire band was heard with great pleasure last night by hundreds of citizens at the Monticello. The band was stationed in the lobby, and for several hours played popular and classical airs, marches, etc. The work of the band won compliments from all who heard it, and the band that ever played at the Monticello, and one of the finest that has visited Norfolk.

This morning at 8:10 o'clock the party will go to Newport News, where the day will be spent in sight-seeing, and to-night they will go on to Richmond via the Chesapeake and Ohio.

Chief Ryan and others are doing all in their power to make their stay in Norfolk pleasing to them. They will spend Thursday and Friday at Richmond, participating in the big firemen's parade, and Saturday at Washington, D. C., returning that night to their home.

Mr. T. H. McDaniel, traveling passenger agent of the Chesapeake and Ohio railway, is with the party over the Chesapeake and Ohio line.

The funeral was held from the family residence Monday afternoon. The services were conducted by Rev. R. B. Scott, of the M. E. Church, South, assisted by Rev. A. W. Burfoot, of the Baptist Church, in the presence of a large concourse of friends and relatives.

The County Court, which was in session Monday, adjourned as a mark of respect, and appropriate resolutions in memory of the deceased were passed by the Court.

The pall-bearers were composed of the following gentlemen: Judge John J. Woodhouse, Mr. A. J. Ackiss, Major J. T. Woodhouse, Messrs. C. J. Nimmo, John P. Woodhouse, Geo. W. Capps, E. M. Seneca and A. E. Kellam.
